Spanish Experience Journal

This summer, the Spanish III students will be writing Spanish experience journals. During the summer, each student will be expected to turn in eight journal entries. Each journal entry will be submitted in Google Classroom. I will not accept late journals. Journals are due at the beginning of each week on Monday before midnight. (Please send your journals through Google Classroom. The class code is 8ow7dez)

Journal requirements:

Writing – One paragraph per week with a minimum of 6 sentences and a maximum of 8.

Reading- Take 10 minutes every day to read in Spanish; it may be a book, magazine, story, poem, or newspaper in Spanish. Tell me in two sentences in English what you understood after every daily reading session. Be aware that sometimes the teacher will provide the reading materials. This summer, you may read from this link <https://aprenderespanol.org/lecturas/ejercicios-de-lectura-avanzado.html> or any other source.

Speaking –Take any opportunities to speak Spanish with native speakers. Record one of those conversations (It must be at least 2 minutes long and you must be an active participant in the conversation). Keep the recording on your phone.

Listening –Take 10 minutes every day to listen to Spanish outside of class in a conversation, music, TV, radio, movie, etc. Tell me in two sentences in English what you understood for every single day.

Vocabulary-Learn 10 new words every week, students must be ready to write the vocabulary. You will write the words in English and Spanish in Google Classroom without using your notes. (Vocabulary will be selected by the teacher).

Grammar- Review or learn concepts in the Spanish grammar. (The grammar topics will be selected by the teacher and you must show evidence of practicing the topic. You can write the notes and provide some examples on how to use it).
